

Weddings at the Historic Webb Barn

Where Romance Meets History

Say “I do!” to the Webb Barn at the Webb Deane Stevens Museum, a rustic wedding venue in Wethersfield, Connecticut. The 19th-century barn is nestled on our spacious 8-acre campus, which includes a lush Colonial Revival flower garden. Full of historic character and charm, the Webb Barn will meet all your wedding’s modern needs.

Personalized Experiences

Large or small, we host them all. The Webb Barn is suitable for larger ceremonies and receptions, while our picturesque garden provides the perfect spot for boutique weddings and other intimate gatherings.

"The Webb Barn was a dream come true. This is the place to get married if you're looking for a rustic setting steeped in American history." Marie R.
